Family Fun and Games Afternoon - TODAY

Games start at 2.30pm short service 4.30pm - B.B.Q. 5.15pm - Tickets £3, under 16's £2, available from Ian Groves and Jonathan Barker.

This week's readings

Amos 8: 1 - 12 Amos was what we would call a social reformer, to the point of being a fire-brand and a nuisance, exposing injustice - and striking a new note for our sense of God's will.

Colossians 1: 15 - 28 The first six verses of the passage may well be an early Christian hymn, expressing belief about Christ in high poetic language. He is nothing less than the comprehensive expression of God to us humans, in every way and from every point of view. So how marvellous to have received this divine mystery ('secret'), now at last revealed.

Luke 10: 38 - 42 This lovely little story has often seized the Christian imagination. It is seen as setting side by side practical service and life dedicated to prayer. There is little doubt where Jesus places the weight.

Please take this away with you
